

The Princeton Review, a public listed company with headquarters in New York is the World's No. 1 Test Preparation company. TPR has 600 franchises with over 1200 offices worldwide.

Each year TPR spends millions of dollars in market research to bring its students the latest strategies to help them get into the college or Business Schools of their choice.

The Princeton Review Kuala Lumpur has been preparing Malaysian students since 2003. All our teachers are high performers with top marks themselves and are graduates of some of the Ivy Leagues and better universities. All franchises maintain the same high quality and standards. TPRKL is owned and operated by the Sara Beattie Group who in addition to Malaysia also has the Hong Kong and Shanghai Franchises.
